

I urge you NOT to support any further deregulation or loosening of FCC rules which would raise the caps on corporate ownership of media outlets. Allowing a handful of corporations to control our media outlets is a threat to our democracy and limits choices by the public to a free press.